INJUNCTION IS DENIED.

Amalgamated Wins an Important Point Against Heinze.

HELENA, Mont., May 15.-Judge Hunt, in the United States court today, denied an injunction sought by F. A. Heinze against the Parrot Mining company in Butte to prevent its mining in a vein which he contended apexed in the Nipper mine, in which he owns thirty-one thirty-sixths, on the ground that a sufficient showing had not been made.

In regard to the so-called "blue vein," Judge Hunt holds that the question hangs on where the discovery is in the Nipper, and in the absence of sufficient showing he grants the injunction in that particular. The decision is considered an important victory for the Amaigamated company, Parrot mine has been closed since pro-ceedings started, and will now resume.

FORMER SALT LAKER CALLED

M. Barnes Passes Away in California.

He Was for Several Years With the Short Line.

News of His Death Will Be Sad Tidings for Many Salt Lake

L. M. Barnes, who was well known both among railroad men and in social circles in Salt Lake City, is dead in Highlands, Cal. Consumption was the cause of his death. A telegram announcing the demise was received yesterday in this city. Mr. Barnes was for several years with General Passenger Agent Burley of the Oregon Short Line in this city. He was also for a time with Dr. Pinkerton. He resigned his position with Mr. Burley because of failing health and went to California. The news of his death will be sad tidings for many Salt Lake people.

New Train to Chicago.

The Rock Island road has a new train out from Denver for the accommodation of east-going travel, making two one-night trains over that road into Chicago. This train was brought about by connection with the fast Kansas City train into Chicago. It connects in Denver with the Rio Grande's No. 2 from Salt Lake. Three trains now run from Denver and Colorado Springs into Chicago, two of them being one-night trains.

Wool Now Moving.

Clear weather in Utah and Nevada has brought about sheep shearing and wool is beginning to move on all routes. On the Sait Lake Route shipments began two days ago, and are still going on, with prospect of a speedy clean-up of the clip. For some time past intermittent rain has prevented shearing, with the result that the clip has been kept waiting in pens for transportation.

Giving Away Oranges.

Today will be ladles day in the Sait Lake Route's offices on Second South street. Every lady calling between 10 o'clock in the morning and 3 o'clock in the afternoon will be given a fine sack of navel oranges with the best wishes of the new road.

Railroad Notes.

A special train was run over the Rio Grande from Park City yesterday, bringing a large number of friends of the lats Charles F. Keith, to attend the funeral.

Three hundred members of the G. A. R. and friends went up to Ogden on a Rio Grande special yesterday to attend the encampment in that city, and a similar number of excursionlets went to Ogden Sunday over the same road.

General Manager Ridgway of the Ric Grando road went back to Denver Saturday evening.

J. L. Moore, district freight and passenger agent of the Sait Lake Route, is back from the business men's excursion to Los Angeles.

Senator W. A. Clark left yesterday for Butte over the Oregon Short Line. He will be a few for the control of the contr be in Montana several days on business.

Vice-President Bancroft of the Oregon Short Line will be back from his trip into Idaho tomorrow afternoon, probably.

General Passenger Agent Burley of the Oregon Short Line is expected back today from a trip into Idaho. Mr. Burley his been in the Twin Falls country for some time.

George W. E. Dorsey, who is well known in Idaho, passed through Salt Lake yesterday from the East, with his bride, en route home.

HAD PLAN TO ESCAPE.

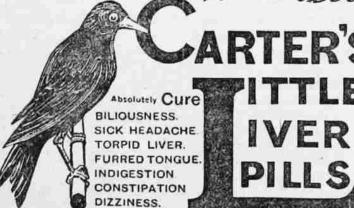

St. Paul Confessed Murderer Almost Cheats the Gallows.

ST. PAUL, May 15.-Edward Gottschalk, who pleaded guilty to the murder of Joseph Hartman, his accomplice in the robbery and murder of Christian Shindeldecker on February 18 last, must hang on Tuesday, August 8. Gov. Johnson today, after reviewing the records of the case, fixed the date.

The Sheriff has been informed of a plot The Sheriff has been informed of a plot between Gottschalk and William Williams, charged with murder, to escape from jall. Only the removal of Gottschalk from the cell he had been occupying prevented its being consummated. Williams, finding that the scheme had failed, told the Sheriff of the plan and conducted him to the bathroom and showed him a section of iron pipe which could be removed by a few turns. Williams said that Gottschalk had planned to conceal this pipe in his cell, and when the jaller came with food to knock him senseiess, take his keys, and release Gottschalk and escape.
